The Justice Project: The March Continues defines a welcoming community as one in which residents and the organizations representing them ensure equal access to everyone who works, visits, lives or seeks to live in their neighborhoods. The Principles for a Welcoming Community set the framework by which communities can evaluate themselves in order to become more accessible, safe and engaged; and by which residents can hold their communities accountable.

Please check which of the following you would like to include in your Partnership:

- Endorse the Principles for the Welcoming Community.
- Agree to influence policy & practices in my community that are consistent with the Principles.
- Assign a representative to be a liaison to The Justice Project: _____
- Send a digital copy of my name and logo to include on The Justice Project website and materials.
- Other: _____
